HILLCREST
HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

THE DIAMOND . . . unchanging and unchangeable;

THE DIAMOND . . . symbol of perfect symmetry;

THE DIAMOND . . . memory of the past, light of the present, promise of the future.

We feel that Hillcrest is DIAMOND-quality:

the different organizations and clubs, the varied classroom subjects, and the opportunity for specialization not only offer chances in many fields but also chart further study and direct vocational choice.

We, the Editors, in accordance with the DIAMOND-quality of Hillcrest, proudly present

. . . THE 1958 PANTHER

WE DEDICATE

For her calm sense of responsibility in the circles she so wisely influences;

For her straightforward understanding of teenagers and her ability to teach and guide them;

For her enthusiastic spirit and friendly smile freely offered to Hillcrest;

For her willing cooperation with students, faculty, and co-workers in serving the school;

WE, THE EDITORS, DEDICATE

THE 1958 PANTHER

. . . To a warm smile—

. . . To a giving personality—

. . . To an English teacher, Student Council sponsor, and friend—

TO MRS. BARBARA KENDALL.

Mrs. Kendall jokes with Joe Lynn about his term theme.

ACTIVITIES

Tragedy struck this month as a tornado unmercifully swept through Dallas, completely destroying several parts of the city.

APRIL

Federal inspection climaxed Hillcrest's R.O.T.C. program for the school year.

Measurement for Seniors' caps and gowns took place this month.

The Reading Clinic at S.M.U. found these Hillcrest history students analyzing all types of propaganda confronting America today.

An address by Rev. Curtis W. Junker highlighted the first honor banquet given by N.H.S.

Jerry Lumsden and Judy Grandjean display things used in the elections—posters, balloons, and pictures of the nominees.

Happily Albert Allison shows the trophy he was awarded for being the best track man on the '57 team.

Open books and worried looks symbolize all Hillcrest students preparing for exams.

Betty Meyers, salutatorian, addresses the Senior class of 1957 at the baccalaureate service.

The Senior All-Night Party found Pat White and Mike Hall engaged in a hot game of pool.

MAY

Warren Gravely, Mr. Thompson, and Karen Sanders enjoy the Latin banquet after the wine drinking ceremony.

On the last day of school, all lockers are finally emptied, displaying all sorts of personal possessions.

The widening of Hillcrest Ave. this summer improved greatly the traffic problem of the school.

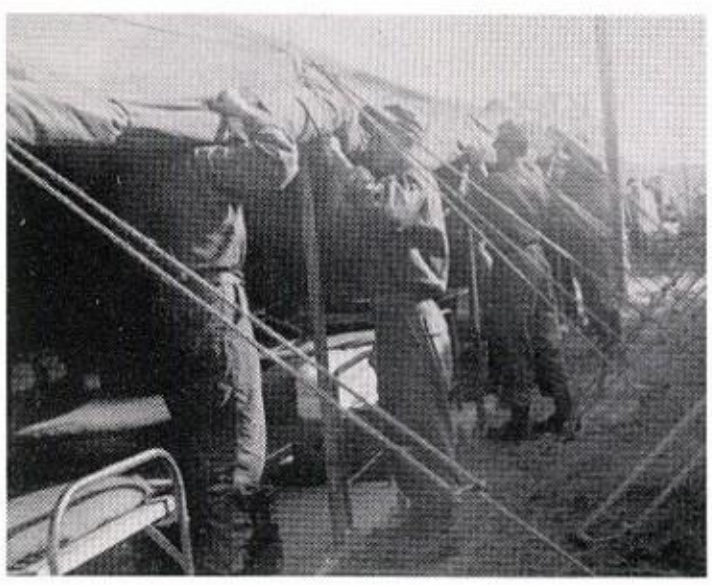
Hillcresters and sponsor Mrs. Taylor pause during their European tour in Rome.



Camp Dallas was the training center for Hillcrest cadets.

Senior Liz Lehmann and '57 graduate Sharon Mooney hold up the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

JUNE

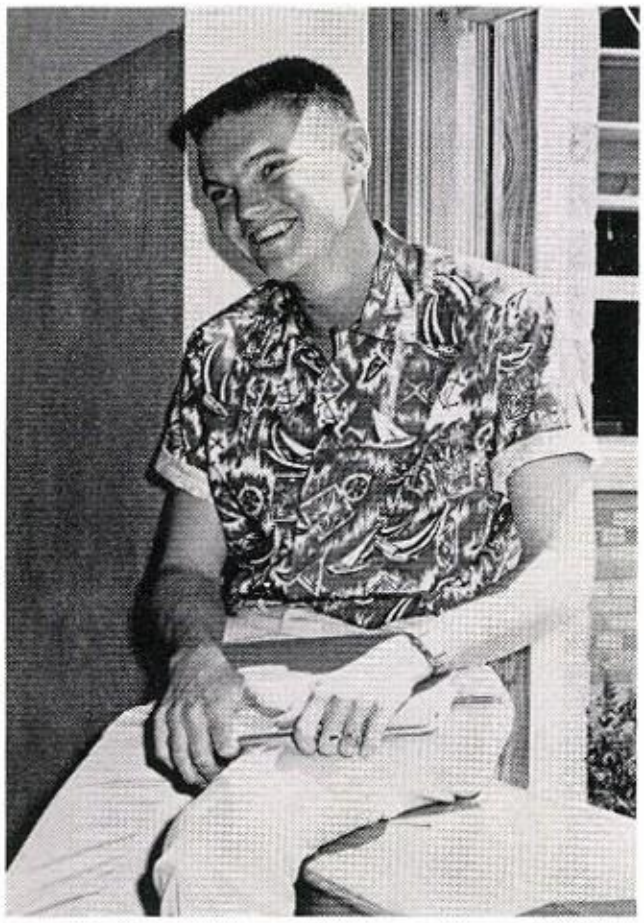
H.H.S. 1957-1958 majorettes Carole Hathcox, Julie Raef, Liz Lehmann, Betty Jo Edstrom, and Portia Mason trained this summer at Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville.

JULY

Hillcrest cheerleaders, shown at the S.M.U. Cheerleading School, took first place as the best cheerleaders there.

Senior Mack Ayers spent his summer playing baseball for a local team.

H.H.S. boys and sponsors Collett and Cayce show their fishing catch in Key West, Florida.



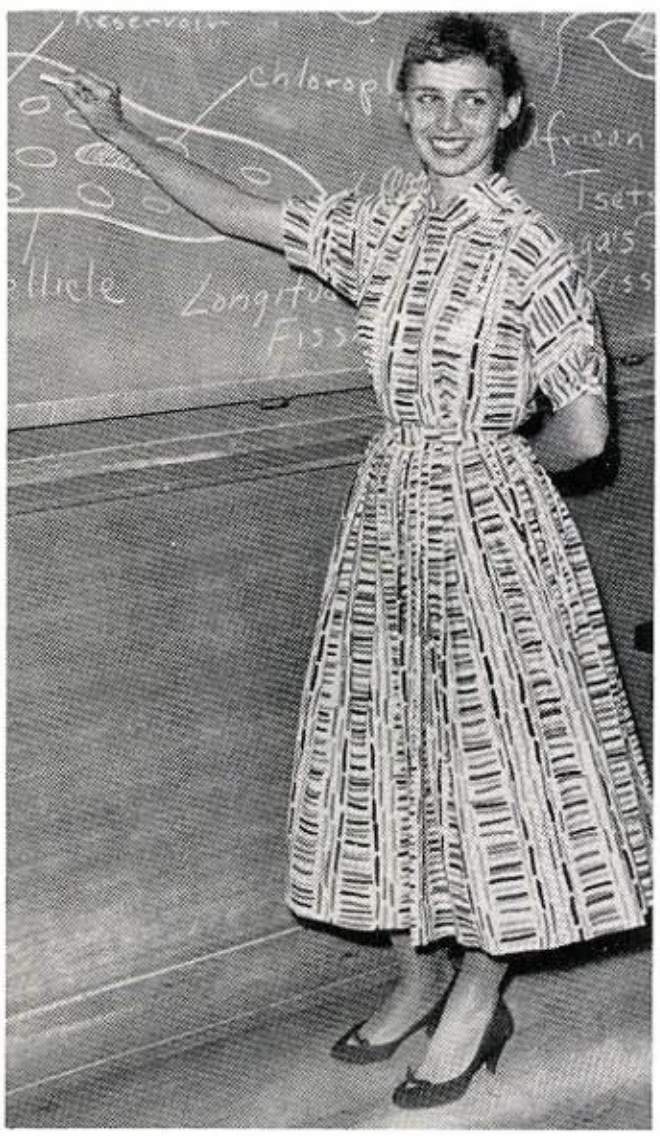
Senior John Falconer pauses for a minute and remembers all the fun he had as an exchange student in Finland.

Joyce Brasier 3B and Betty Detweiler 4B spent an interesting summer working as pages in the Republic National Bank.

Excellent football half-time performances bore witness to many early-morning practice hours.

AUGUST

The Senior class elected John Robertson from these candidates as their president.

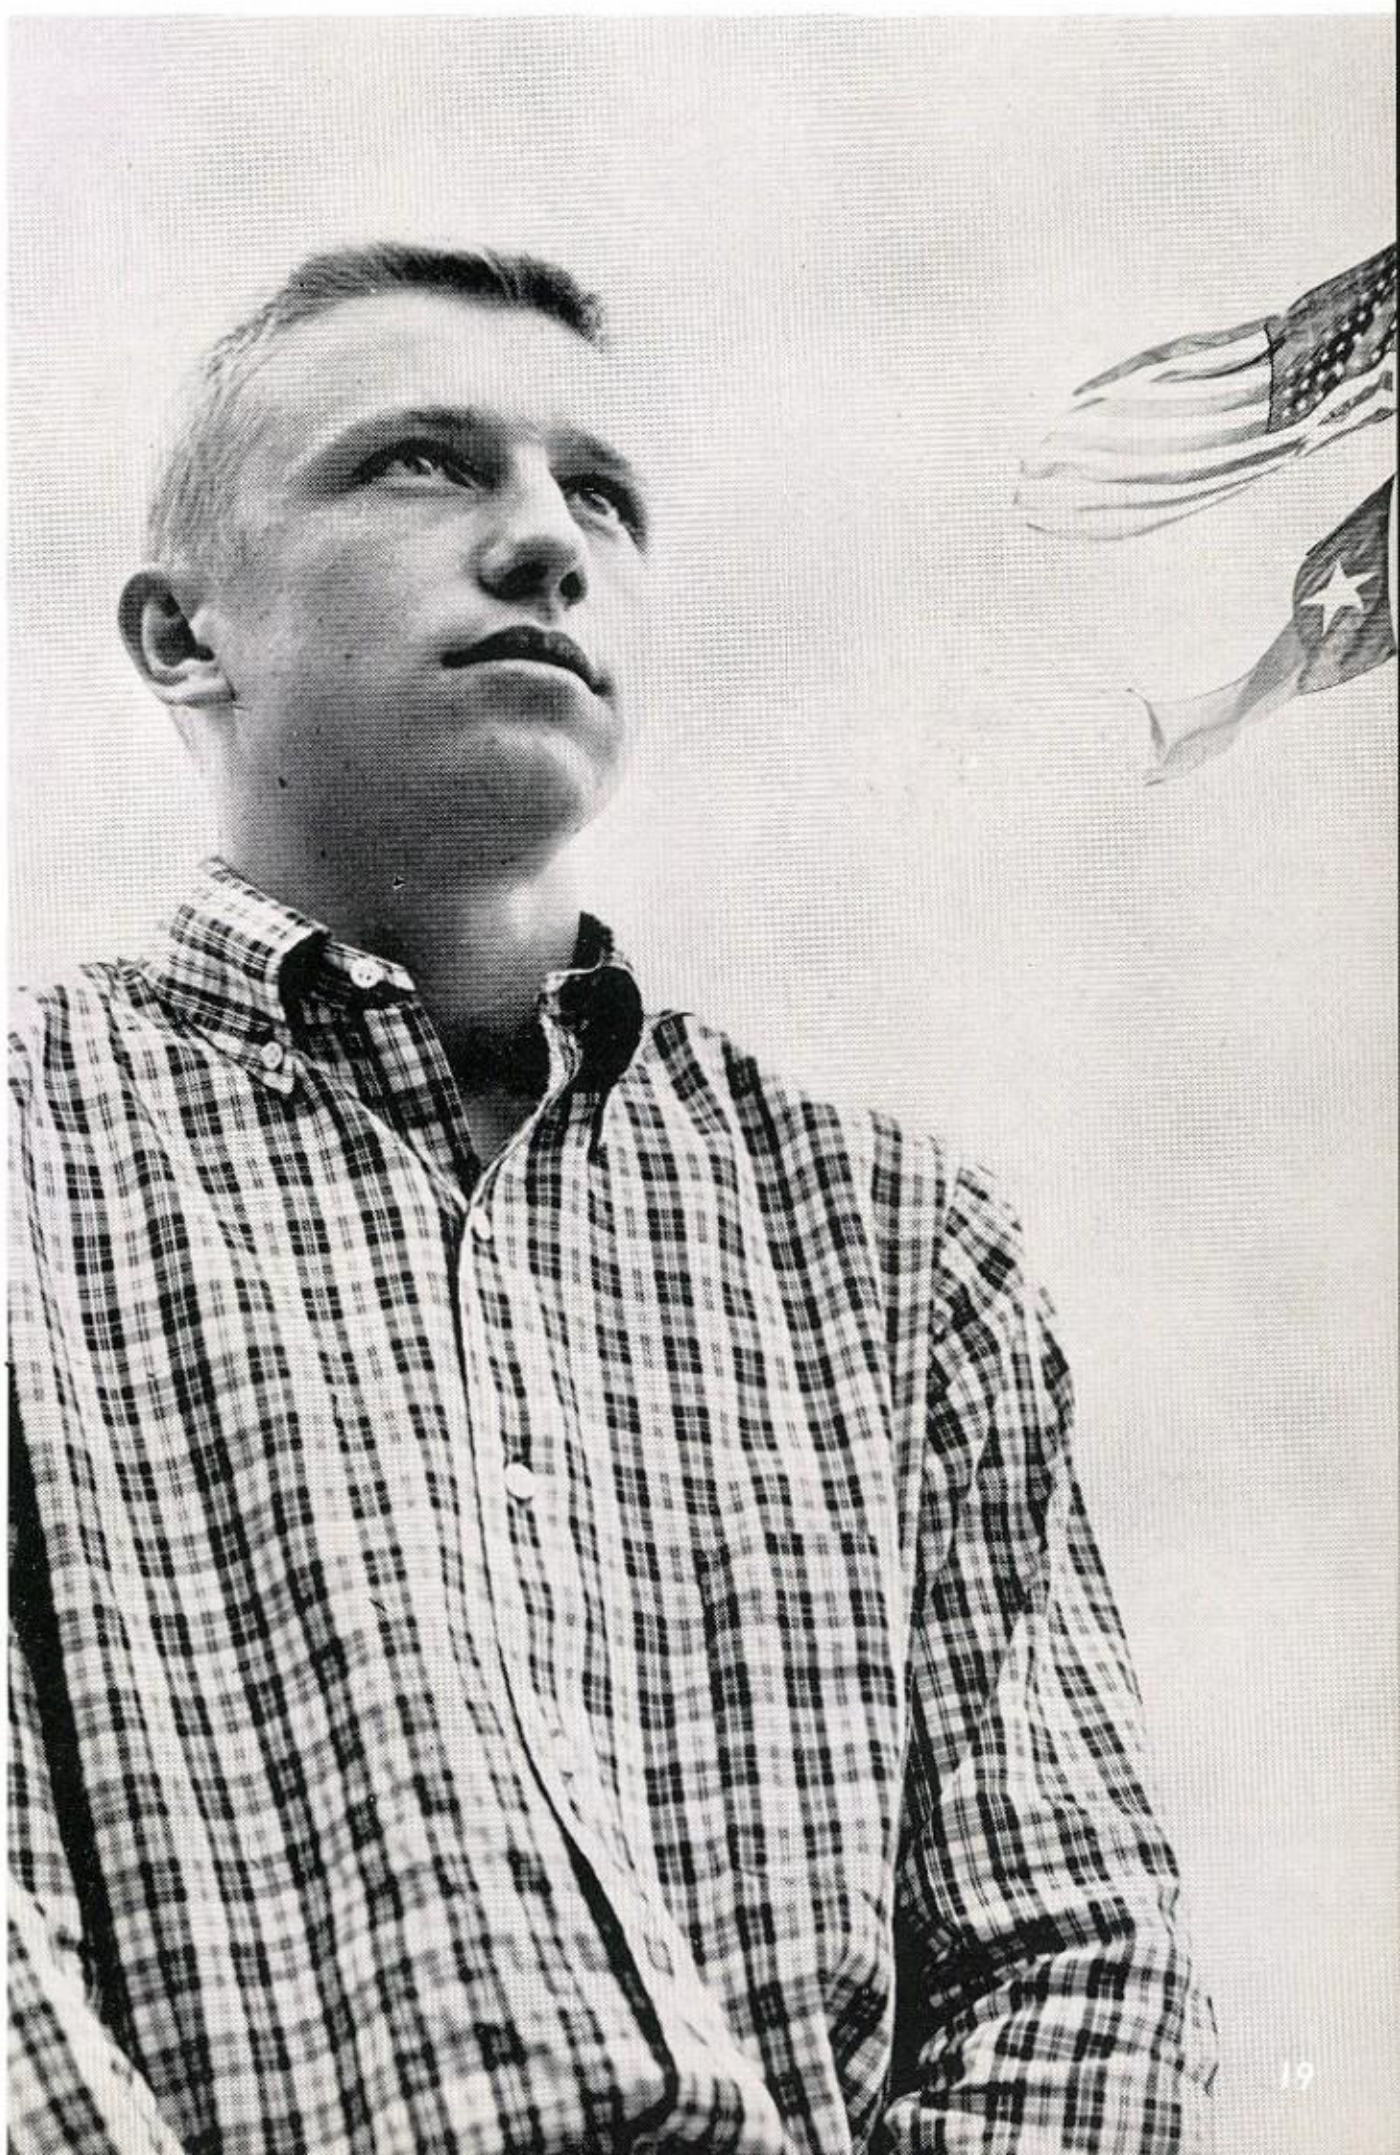


Babs Runyon, '55 graduate, came back as a practice teacher in biology this year.

The N.D.C.C. honor guard and these four speakers made our annual flag-raising ceremony a success.

SEPTEMBER

Student Council President, Jim Heath, inspired by the flags, reflects upon our great American heritage.



The crowning of "Big Brother" Barry Segall by President Patsy Choice came at the climax of the Big Sister Bermuda Ball.

Connie Chappell, Marlene Sigmon, and Chuck Immel, 4B's, prepare to give a birthday party at the City-County Convalescent Home as a Red Cross project.

Trapped in an elevator during the speech department assembly are Vivian Hartman, Linda Barnhill, Marilyn Robinson, Susan Spaller, and Carol McKinley.

A big pileup occurs when Panthers scramble for and recover opponent's fumble.

OCTOBER

Preparing P.T.A. notices for mailing are Mrs. Frank Wilmer and Mrs. W. F. Meador.

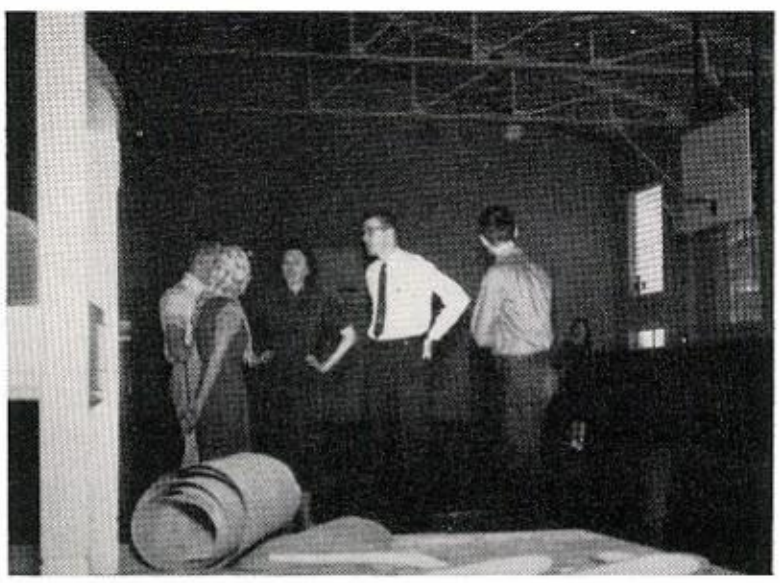
Jeffrey Flatguard and Lynn Deason compete with other seniors in the Scholarship Qualifying Tests.

Bill Dodge, 3B; Joe Lynn, 4B; and Doug Pritchett, 3B; present their interpretation of our cheerleader at pep assembly.

Three Mouseketeers, Arnold Sternberg, 4B; Andrea McMullen, 4B; and Becky Bryan, 2B appear in the speech assembly.

NOVEMBER

The band rehearses before the Highland Park Exchange Assembly, while HHS and HP cheerleaders and Student Council officers assemble.



Don Carroll, Kay Henneberger, and Tim Block discuss with Mrs. Kendall and Mr. Moore ideas on decorating the gym for the Homecoming Dance.

Reverend Bob Richards speaks to the student body, as Mr. Merrill Hartman, Program Chairman of the P.T.A., looks on.

A captivated audience of parents listens to Reverend Bob Richards' talk to the P.T.A.

Mr. Williamson arranges the band before a performance at Franklin Field.

Jim Potter catches a pass to make a H.H.S. first down during the North Dallas game.

Mrs. Kendall and Mrs. Cox register Betty Detweiler in the Reader's Digest editing session held at Hillcrest. Betty and representatives from other high schools selected the "Top 10."

The Christmas dance was enjoyed by everyone there.

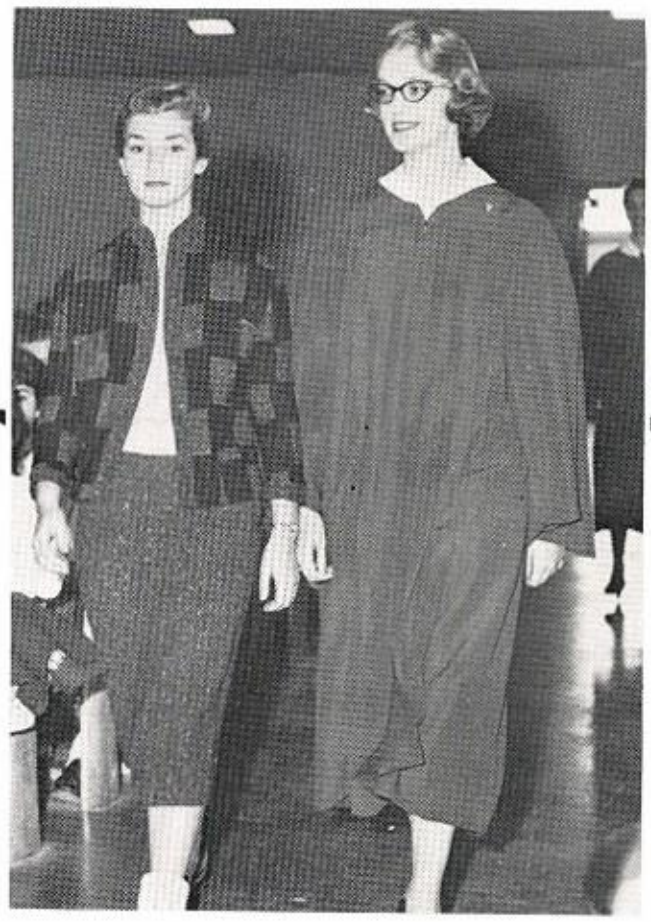
Key Club president Joe Lynn shakes hands with banquet speaker Mr. Grady Spruce.

Seniors Linda Barnhill and Woodie Wood pose at the Christmas dance with the traditional tree as background.

DECEMBER

Sophomores obviously had a "blast" at their dance this month.

Chuck Beale, 2B, hands the purchase price for his slave Trudy Dowd to Suzie Moore, treasurer of the J.C.L., as Lynn Dunlap looks on.



N.H.S. initiate Bobbie Sue Fromm is escorted to the stage by Sally Spafford.

PANADERS

The Panaders, one of the hardest working groups at Hillcrest, are very much in evidence during football season. Before school the Panaders strive hard to perfect their routine for the week's game. At pep assembly their indomitable school spirit and enthusiasm inspires the entire student body. But, most important, a Hillcrest football game would seem incomplete without the precision routine of the marching Panaders in their chic red and white uniforms.
